The last witness for the day was Martin D. Creer of the Newcastle division of the Baltimore and Ohio. He said that ability did not always rule in the employment of men and that few experienced conductors out of a job were hired. He also said he was liable to arrest and a fine if his train blocked a street crossing, and knew of one case only in which the railroad paid the fine. He declared that the men on the trains east of Chicago ought to be paid the same wages as men on the trains west-of Chicago, the work and responsibility being the same.

was snot twice in the head and seriously wounded early to-day after engaging in a revolver duel with one of the trio. The man who wounded the Sheriff was captured later by a posse of farmers. He gave his name as Robert Duffey of Buffalo, N. Y. J.

The shooting of the Sheriff followed a robbery on a lonely road near Bryan.

The shooting of the Sheriff followed a robbery on a lonely road near Bryan, Ohio, shortly after midnight. Three young men well dressed and riding in a big gray car held up an automobile touring party consisting of Herman G. S. Luytles, president of the Sanitol Chemical Laboratory Company of St. Louis; W. E. Krieger, New York manager of the Sanitol company; J. M. Bye of St. Louis, also connected with the Sanitol company, and Mrs. E. Smith and daughter Alice, both of Chicago. After stripping the tourists of their jeweiry and other valuables the bandits drove off with their own and Luyties's car. The bandits obtained about $100 in cash and jeweiry worth $250. Miss Smith saved jeweiry worth $800 by hiding it in her mouth. it in her mouth.

The two other bandits were arrested later at Montpelier and much of the plun-der was recovered. The prisoners confessed and gave their names as Arthur Gerow, 20 years old, of 1218 Evergreen avenue. New York, and William Justice, 20 years old, of Philadelphia. They said the man first arrested was Robert Dwyer, 28, of New York, the name Duffey being

DAIRY PRODUCTS MARKETS.

BUTTER.—It was believed early yesterday that there would be an advance in butter because of the scarcity of fine stock. There was not much trading, but there were a number of bids under the call of the Mercantile Exchange that would indicate higher prices. There was one bid of 32½c., the outside quotation for delivery by the end of next week. Everything indicated a higher market, but the quotations remain the same. Receivers of fine lines are paying 14,61c. above quotations and are glad to get the stock. Trading in undergrades was small and process remains steady at old quotations. Packing stock is up ½c. with more demand than stock to supply it. Quotations are: Creamery, extrus. 326,32½c.; firsts. 23½,321c.; seconds. 266,27½c.; State dairy, finest. 396,31c.; good to prime. 276,29c. Process extras. 276,27½c.; firsts. 25½,426.c. Imitation creamery, 25½,626c. Factory firsts. 24½c.; seconds. 23½,622½c.; No. 3, 2122½c.

CHEESE.—There was an advance of ½c. on white and colored specials yesterday, although the general trade felt that quotations were high enough. The advance was made on sales which were authentic. Many of the receivers will not report all their sales, but the general tone of the market warranted the advance. Outside of the line advanced there was no further increase, although the feeling all along is firm. Prices are: State. whole milk, fresh, white and colored specials. 16½,615½c.; fresh, colored and white, average fancy. 15½c. Daisles. 12%c.; poor to fair, 5@9c.; full skims, 11% 64c.

EGGS.—Another advance yesterday of 1c. on high grade eggs made the market the highest of the season. Finest current receipts selling 32@35c., with nearby hennery stock that is fresh laid up to 42c. The advance extended over all lines, except second grades of dirties and Western hennery whites. Mixed henneries are up \(\frac{1}{2}\)c. Much complaint is heard about the poor stock from Missouri and Illinois. The use of refrigerators is increasing rapidly and there were reports yesterday of the sale of 20,000 cases as a speculation. Prices follow: Extras. dozen. 32@35c.; extra firsts. 31\(\pi\) 32c.; firsts. 23\(\pi\)30c.; seconds. 25\(\pi\)27c.; dirties. "The Investment Bankers Association of America protest most earnestly against the reported provision of the amended income tax providing for deduction of tax due foreign bondholders. William L. Wilson, author of the 1894 income tax bill, is quoted in debate in 1890 as declaring that the nation which sought to make the foreigner pay a tax was a mendicant nation, and if the collection was made by force a pirate nation. The Government should not support itself by deduction from debts due by Americans to aliens."
